Effective August 1, 2022 the NCAA requires that all Division III student-athletes provide proof of sickle cell testing.

To meet requirements students must submit results for ONE of the following:

Hemoglobin Solubility or Hemoglobin S test Sickle Cell Solubility Test

Hemoglobinopathy panel that includes hemoglobin A +/- hemoglobin F, S.

Newborn screening results. The panel must specify "hemoglobinopathy screen" or "sickle cell screen." In 2000, 41 states required sickle cell testing as part of newborn screening testing done for all born in a hospital setting. As of 2006 g.
